

able	able to be adventure	an unusual or exciting experience amateur	someone who engages in an athletic activity for fun rather than for money applause	the clapping of hands to show approval artistic	showing skill and good taste astronaut	a person trained to participate in the flight of a spacecraft audience	the people gathered to see or hear a performance backstop	a fence behind home plate cargo	things carried by a ship or vehicle checkpoint	a place where vehicles are inspected

com	together compete	to take part in a contest con	with control	the ability to guide something elements	the parts of which something is made up ex	out excitement	a state of activity or agitation forty-five record	a small record with one selection on each side foul	outside the field of play in baseball frightened	made afraid graph	write ible	capable, worthy of image	a mental picture of something that is not present or real imagination	the ability to form mental pictures of things that are not present or real inning	a part of a baseball game during which each team bats inter	between ion	act, result, or state of (makes a noun) ist	one who practice; one who, that which judges	people who decide who wins a contest launches	puts into action by force limelight	focus of public attention ment	act of, state of, result (makes a noun) mis	wrong or bad mission	an operation that is assigned to achieve certain goals mushers	drivers of teams of sled dogs non	not obstacles	things that block progress or	one who, that which orbit	the path of a spacecraft around the earth pace	speed

pantomime	theatrical action done in silence play-offs	a series of games played to decide a championship in sports poem	a piece of writing, often in rhyme, in which words are chosen for their sound and beauty as well as meaning pre	before presentation	performance pressure	urgent or forceful demand required	necessary; essential respectable	pretty good reusable	able to be used again rhyme	agreement in the final sounds of two or more words, syllables, or final lines of verse rhythm	a written, spoken, or musical pattern with a series of regularly accented beats rupt	break

satellite	a device made to orbit the earth while performing a task sign	mark space shuttle	a spacecraft launched like a rocket that can return to Earth and land like a plane specialist	one who becomes an expert in a particular field spect	to look at spectators	people who watch an even talent	a natural or acquired ability technical	having to do with technique

---

tele

distance

---

terrified

frightened

---